

Number 3

KG

Sharing the planet

The first session students used paper to make Santa craft.

The next session they made a paper cat.

The students used cotton to make a snow man.

The last activity was a rabbit puppet.

G1

How we express ourselves

To draw expressing feelings with non-verbal expressions was the first activity students did.

Getting to know zoo animals and illustrating them was the next activity.

In the next session the students learned what perspective is and how they can use it in their drawings.

Grade2

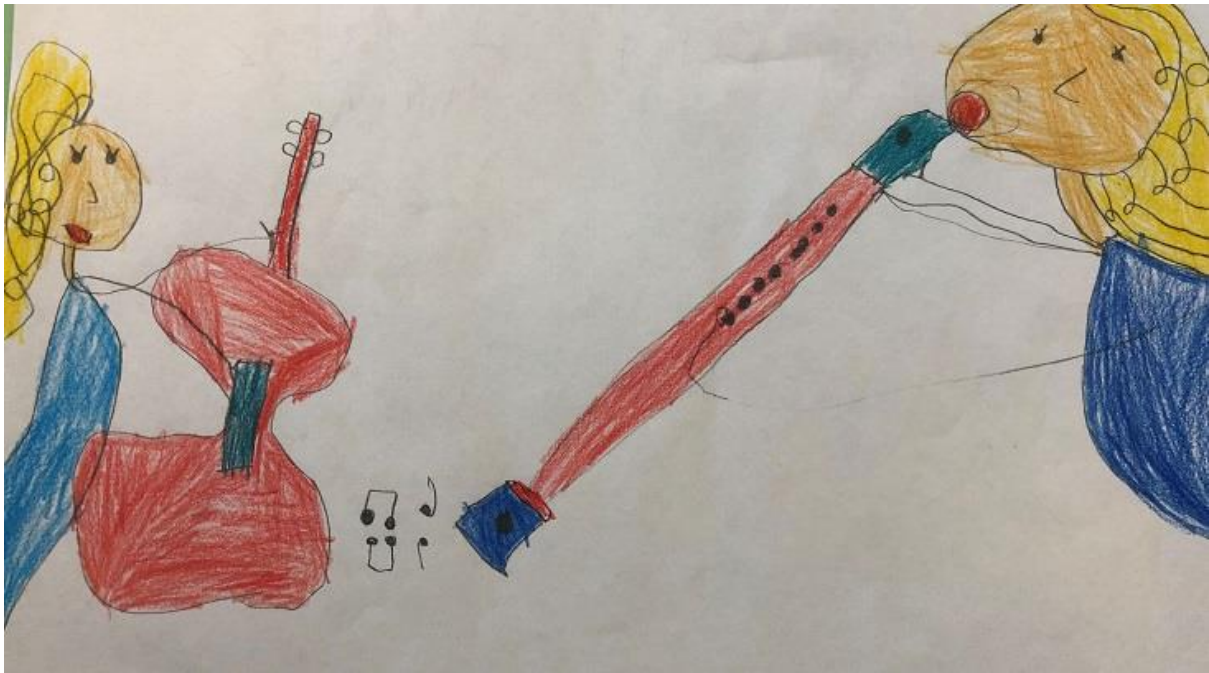

Sharing the planet

The first activity was drawing about Christmas.

The next activity was illustrating how we can earth from getting polluted.

The students participated in a competition called "Peace and sport".

The last activity was drawing their favorite musical instruments.

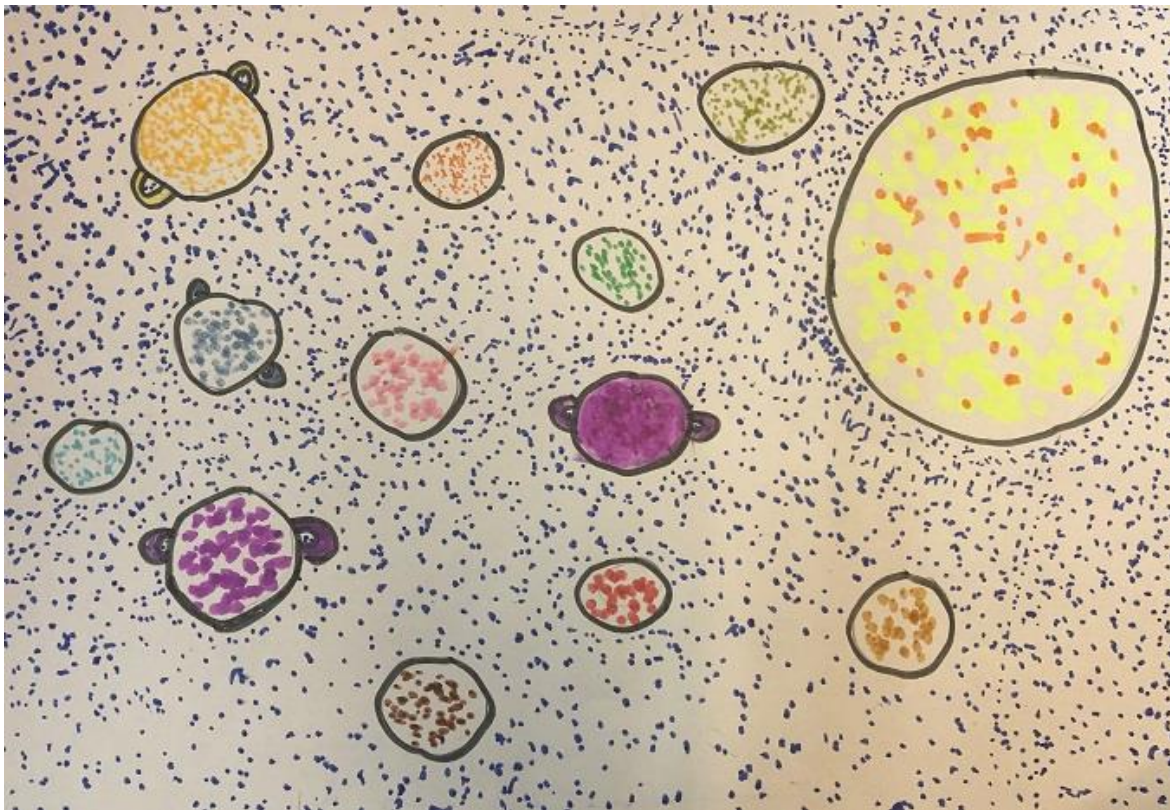

Grade3

Sharing the planet

The first activity was drawing the consequences of water shortage.

The students participated in a competition called "Peace and sport".

The students got to know the concept of texture and did a drawing based on this concept

Grade 4

Who we are

The students participated in a competition about saving water.

The students sketched eggs for charity to be printed on shopping bags.

Grade5

How we express ourselves

The first drawing was about Christmas.

The next session students got to know what spiral is and how they can use it in drawing.

The next activity was sketching Russian dolls called "Matryoshka".

