

In The Name Of God

Date: May 9, 2020

Shahid Mahdavi International School

In these different days, our children are at home and we all have been experiencing a new different world. Some of worries and discomfort are natural though.

We are going to have a meeting to analyze a better life style on these days.

In this virtual family education meeting, some useful and practical techniques, based on scientific theories, will be presented alongside a question- and- answer part.

If you have got any questions or suggestions about the topic of the meeting (positive parenting in quarantine period), or the counselling department, you can contact us via school e-mail (info@mahdavischool.org), Rubika page, telephone.

At the end of the meeting, you can ask your questions.

In these difficult days, we hope all conquer difficulties and create great chances for our growth.
